

Notice for prospective students

Dear Prospective Students,

Please be informed that the admission of the students with missing documents is conditional. Students with missing documents are instructed to submit those documents within ten working days after the Government imposed lockdown is over. Failing to submit the required documents will lead to the cancellation of admission.

Please also note that your admission will be canceled immediately if any of the submitted documents is found fake/ forged.